

"THE GUERNSEY POST OFFICE: A POEM"

Glenn H. Morgan

In London Town at B.P.E.
the leaflet said: "Collect Guernsey"
So in '69 I thought I'd get
the very first definitive set.
From one half D to one full pound
a new collection I had found.

Now that fifteen years have passed
Guernsey stamps? Still unsurpassed!
I've learnt of heros such as Brock
and now know Guernsey had a dock.
That Sark She had a famous Dame
and Hugo whilst in exile came.

Now Alderney has entered scene
I've greater reason to be keen.
What joy it is to see
there's more to Guernsey than just sea.
So to all the team my heartfelt thanks
for putting up with all us cranks.

(and for this awful poetry!)

Guernsey
Post Office

Philatelic News

VOL.3 NO.19
JANUARY 1985

An 'Orrible Ode

In London Town (at B.P.E.)
The leaflet said "Collect Guernsey"
So in '69 I thought I'd get
The very first definitive set
From one half D to one full pound
A new collection I had found.

Now that 14 years have passed
Guernsey stamps? Still Unsurpassed!
I've learnt of heroes such as Brock
And now know Guernsey had a dock
That Sark she had a famous Dame
And Hugo whilst in exile came.

Now Alderney has entered scene
I've greater reason to be keen
What utter joy it is to see There's more to Guernsey than just sea!
So, to all the "team" my heartfelt thanks
For putting up with all us cranks.

(and for this awful poetry).

*Glenn H. Morgan
Hornchurch, Essex.*